In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

Our Promise to You:

During your time of need, we promise to listen, and assist your family in identifying the type of funeral arrangements that best meet your needs. By listening and asking questions about your loved one, we can help you determine the best way to pay tribute and create a lasting remembrance celebration. Together we will search to find meaningful ways to commemorate the life of your loved one during the visitation, funeral and interment services and incorporate participation of family and friends.
