Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services

Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services has remained family owned and operated for over 135 years. Carrying on a long family tradition, Coyle has been synonymous with caring, quality, compassionate funeral and cremation services. In 1888, James Coyle opened his first funeral home on Broadway near downtown Toledo. A civic-minded leader and local activist, Mr. Coyle wanted to help his community and created a business that reached out to families during their time of mourning.

The funeral business was expanded to locations on Collingwood Avenue and Reynolds Road as it was passed on to the second and third generations, son William and grandsons William and James Coyle. Today, the fourth and fifth generations, great-grand son Joseph Coyle and his daughter, Megan Coyle, continue to respectfully help families throughout Northwest Ohio.

Coyle's directors and staff pride themselves on the long-standing, faithful tradition of serving with knowledge, integrity and comfort upon which its client families have come to rely.

Dear Friends,

Unlike large chains focused on investors and shareholders, we believe our reputation is our most important asset. We earn your confidence by creating meaningful and healing experiences.

Our funeral and service professionals are specially selected and here to gently guide you and those you care about most through the critical first steps of this journey. Healing and meaningful events don't happen by accident and one style does not fit all.

Cost is often one of the first things people will inquire about in their initial conversation with us. We are proud to offer the widest range of options and prices to meet every family's need. While price is important, what most people really want to know at this most difficult time is, "Are you someone I can TRUST? Is Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services worthy of caring for my loved one?" We encourage you to visit us and compare. I know our facilities and our team of caring professionals will impress you.

Choose quality. Choose value. Choose people committed to providing meaningful and healing experiences. Those you care about will be grateful you chose Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services.

Whether planning in advance, a gift to those you care about most, or at the time of need, we are here for you any hour of the day and night.

Most sincerely,
Megan M. Coyle

The Ceremony You Want

Designing Your Own Ceremony

How do you celebrate and honor a life? Your funeral and memorial service can be as distinct as your loved one's life – totally unique or very simple. Or it may be important to you to follow time-honored family traditions that link the life of your loved one to a larger view of life, religion, and the universe.

That's where we come in. Our expertise and our suggestions can help you create a memorable experience by getting to know your loved one's life story. We will assist you in designing a service that will help create peace of mind for those involved and appropriately honor your loved one. We can arrange the location, order of the service, clergy or an officiant, obituaries, musicians, poems and/or prayers, dove release or a veteran honor guard. The possibilities are endless.

Bringing together family and friends at a time of loss provides comfort and companionship. A ceremony uniquely designed to celebrate the life of your loved one, is a gift and the initial step in healing.

Signature Services

Online Obituaries and Condolences

A full web tribute is provided for every single family we serve. It includes your loved one's own home page, obituary, visitation & service information, a photo gallery, a memorial video (if one is created), and an opportunity for people to leave and view condolences to the family at www.CoyleFuneralHome.com/obituaries and Facebook.com/CoyleFuneralHome.

Tribute Displays

We encourage families to bring in items such as jewelry, photographs, mementos, anything that can be displayed to reflect the life their loved one lived. Golf Clubs, fishing rods, work boots, hard hats, needle point, knitting needles and much more have been brought in and carefully displayed by the staff at Coyle to help tell a life story. We supply large photo boards to you so that you can create photo collages that are framed during services.

Dove or Balloon Release

Add a personalized touch to the final farewell of a loved one's committal service with a dove or balloon release.

Tribute Video

The most personal addition to any service is to create a tribute video, which truly reflects and celebrates their life. Share on the web and a DVD of your treasured photographs starting from a little girl growing up, her wedding, a new mother and her love of her grandchildren. Each relationship is highlighted and celebrated. Backgrounds reflect important parts of their life and the music elevates the entire presentation to a moving and emotional experience. One personalized DVD is included.

Aftercare

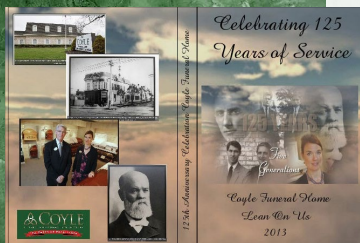

From our many years of experience, we know families have many questions and concerns after the funeral concludes. It is important for you to know we are here for you through our Aftercare Family Service Follow Up. This program provides a personal visit to listen to your needs, and essential services you may need assistance with. More importantly, to make sure you and your entire family were satisfied with your level of service. We will provide you with a comprehensive folder with grief resources, an aftercare checklist of details, and offer more thank-you notes or death certificates. We can assist with filing of benefits and other estate matters. Please know that our support and care continues long after your initial loss. We offer a special holiday remembrance gift and a send one year anniversary card.

Blankets are machine washable, non-fading, and designed to be well used, loved and cherished. Additional Tapestries can be ordered.

Thumbies - Creating Keepsakes

Let us help you create keepsakes of those you love and the times you want to remember. Three dimensional Thumbies are crafted from fingerprints, footprints or handprints using the time-honored process of lost wax casting. The finished pieces are ever so touchable, making real our memories at each stage of life's cycle.

Burial Services

Time Honored Traditions

There is no “right or wrong” formula for honoring your loved one when burial has been selected. Whether you choose a traditional or private burial after the funeral service or have the burial precede the memorial service. We are here to listen to your concerns, share our experiences, and help you arrive at the perfect way to gather together before or after your loved one’s interment at a cemetery of your choice. We are also experts in arranging the details of ceremonies appropriate to your faith tradition.

Traditional Burial

Traditions are comforting to many people. When a family chooses a “traditional burial” we can help you create a fitting graveside service and guide you through a church or funeral home ceremony.

Veteran Services

Honoring Those Who Protect Our Freedom

Why do more families trust Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services with veteran services? It is because we are known for our compassionate and caring professionals, and we are experts in planning military services. Depending on the branch of service, military detachments may provide an honor guard, a flag and taps. Our veterans deserve our utmost respect, and any veteran with an honorable discharge or even those with no living family will always be given military honors and internment in a national cemetery.

Experts in Planning Military Services

We know our veterans to be heroes, each of whom has contributed to the preservation of the freedoms we enjoy today. We believe it is our responsibility to honor their sacrifices and celebrate their achievements. Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services offers the most comprehensive veteran options to appropriately pay tribute to the life of a veteran.

Veteran Benefits

The US Department of Veteran Affairs (www.va.gov) provides benefits for a veteran's family if they can provide a copy of their honorable discharge papers. These benefits will include a flag, burial in a national veteran's cemetery, a headstone/marker, a Presidential Memorial Certificate and military honors. If burial is in a veterans' cemetery, a grave can also be reserved for a surviving spouse and any dependent children.

We also will assist in completing all applications for benefits to which a veteran or their family are entitled or eligible, including:

Burial in a national cemetery

Securing an American flag

Receiving military honors

Obtaining a headstone/marker

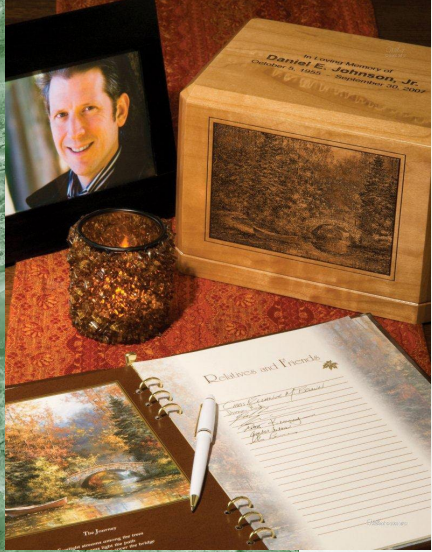

Receiving monetary burial benefits and transportation, if applicable.

Receiving a Presidential Memorial Certificate

In today's busy world, we are constantly reminded to plan well for our future. It's possible that you have already prepared your living trust, planned your financial estate, set up a retirement account and maybe started a college fund for your children or grandchildren. All this will ensure that those you love will be well taken care of if anything should happen to you. How important is it then to plan ahead for an inevitable need?

Planning your funeral and/or your cremation services in advance will not only allow you to guide the look and feel of your service, but it will also free your family from wondering what your wishes would be, allowing them time to support one another, share their memories and begin their journey of healing.

Now is the time to have this discussion with your family, not while you are in crisis. End of life planning is more about living well and it's easier than you think. Bringing family together for an honest conversation about your plans and wishes is the first step. We consistently see that families who take this walk together have greater peace of mind knowing that every detail has been discussed and planned.

The Practical Benefits, Protect Your Family. Without a doubt, the most important reason for making arrangements in advance is to spare the family the financial responsibility of doing so. This certainly reduces the stress for family and friends at an already emotional time.

Preneed Planning

It Can Save Money. Funding your arrangements in advance through a preneed funeral insurance trust policy can secure the costs of services and the memorial products at today's prices, and guarantees that your family will not have to pay more in the future.

Lets Your Wishes Be Known. You may have specific wishes as how you want to be memorialized. Advance planning will allow you to let your wishes be known about the type of funeral or cremation arrangement you want and will lift the burden of those difficult decisions from your family.

Fully Transferable Insurance Policy. Should you move out of the area, the funeral insurance policy death benefit purchased through Coyle Funeral and Cremation Services is fully transferable to a mortuary of your choice in the United States.

Travel Plan. Should your death occur while you are traveling anywhere in the United States or abroad (100 miles from your legal residence), our Travel Plan will file the appropriate paper work and transport you back to Coyle. This will spare your family the logistics and stress, saving them thousands of dollars.

When to Plan Ahead. The best time is now, while you are thinking about it. We all want to think that there is plenty of time to prepare. But like any future need, being well educated will provide you with the insight to make good decisions in advance without undue stress and unwanted spending. The benefits are significant but the peace-of-mind you will have is priceless. It truly is a gift you give your family.
