Deborah can explain all your options, so you can make the right choices for you and your family. She can also show you options for prefunding and how to lock in the prices therefore freezing inflation. Owen Funeral Homes understands how hard this process can be, but we can make this easier for you and your loved ones.

Aftercare

The Owen Funeral Homes are committed to the care of our families and community before, during and following a funeral. It is with this dedicated service that we have on our staff, a Bereavement Services Specialist. Genene Nisbet, M.Div., a Kentucky Licensed Pastoral Counselor, is also Certified in Thanatology. Genene provides aftercare programs to assist those who mourn the loss of a loved one. These programs include complimentary individual/family counseling, grief support groups, grief resources, educational programs, and the occasions for social outings and travel.

Aftercare services also offer an annual remembrance service honoring those we have serviced over the past year, along with a beautiful handcrafted personalized ornament. Our services also provide the opportunity to create a special remembrance on the Owen Remembrance Quilt followed by a meaningful dedication service. Our hope, is that these services ease the pain of loss and assist individuals and families we serve.

Pastoral Care

Owen Funeral Home is committed to walking with our families through some of the most difficult days of their lives. As a part of our sincere service, we have a full-time pastor on staff, Dr. Ken Cutrer. Holding master and doctorate degrees from Ashland Theological Seminary, Ken serves as our Director of Pastoral Care and meets with every family as they arrive and begin the process of dealing with their loss. He is available to do ecumenical services for those families needing a pastor and will do follow-up calls to continue meeting the needs for those who are grieving. He is available to work with the families on spiritual questions, praying with and for the families through the entire process. He is also active in assisting the families on the days of the visitation and the funeral and is always available to meet with the families for times of encouragement and solace. Our prayer is that you will know that you are not walking alone during this time of loss and that we are available to assist with your spiritual, mental and emotional needs.
