THE HISTORY OF OUR FUNERAL HOME

The Futhers' came to Wellesley in March of 1933. Milton R. "Pat" Futher, came to work for Mr. John Ratz who operated the Undertaking, Furniture and saw mill. In 1934, John Ratz passed away and Milton R. Futher purchased the business from the Ratz estate. The name of the business became the M.R. Futher Funeral Service and Furniture as of June 1935.

The present Funeral Home was built in 1897 by Mr. Edward Ratz who operated from 1897 till 1908. Edward Ratz sold his business to his brother John. Edward then opened a business in Kitchener (Berlin). M.R. Futher and his wife Eileen Futher, operated the business with the help of his three sons; Ronald, Jerome and William, until the death of M.R. Futher on December 12, 1962. His sons continued to operate the Funeral Home and in June of 1963, the Funeral Home name was changed to Futher Bros. Ltd. Funeral Service and Furniture. In recent years, brother Jerome passed away and the furniture operations were closed.

In the fall of 2007, Christopher W. Franklin purchased the Futher Bros. Ltd. Funeral Home after the decision by Ronald and William Futher to start their long-deserved retirement. Sadly, Ronald C. Futher passed away on February 23, 2016, at the age of 81 years. He will be greatly missed in the funeral home and around the Wellesley community.

Christopher was born and raised in Brantford, Ontario. He started his chosen career at the age of sixteen at the Beckett-Glaves Funeral Home in Brantford. Chris received his Funeral Directors Licence issued by the Ontario Board of Funeral Services in 1988. He has a wealth of experience. Fulfilling his apprenticeship requirements at the Coutts & Sons and T. Little & Sons Funeral Home in Cambridge, he moved to the Dundas, Ontario area and worked in Guelph, Hamilton and in Dundas for over seventeen years.

In 2019, Christopher proceeded with an extensive renovation of the facilities and remodeling including a state-of-the-art video and sound system, new lounges, offices and parking lot.

Christopher is married to Diane and they have 5 children; Laura-Lily, who is now a funeral director in Cambridge, Christopher, Justine, Spencer and Natalie. Our family is honoured to now serve your family with the same Compassion, Dignity and Respect that you have come to expect from the Futher Family.

January 15, 2026

The Futher-Franklin Funeral Home appreciates the trust and confidence you have placed in us. We endeavor to provide care and compassionate service in a professional and responsible manner.

We believe that it is our responsibility to explain all costs associated with the Funeral Service you have selected. Since the costs of such services encompass several aspects, listed below are points that make up the costs of funeral services.

Professional Service Costs: These costs cover all our professional services, facilities, and vehicles.

Merchandise Costs: These involve the price for and are not limited to the casket, urn, burial vaults, stationery, reception food and floral tributes.

Taxes: Since the implementation of the HST on July 1, 2011, this cost is added to the above items.

Disbursements: Traditionally, funeral homes have paid items on behalf of the family as a courtesy. These items were never a charge of the funeral home but were needed to be paid to fulfill the funeral service. These items include but were limited to cemetery grave opening, cremation fee, death announcements, clergy fees, organist fees or other church fees. Since the implementation of the HST, if a funeral home pays for these items for you, we are performing a service and thus taxable. We suggest that you pay for these items directly in the envelopes we provide and save the HST. We can however, pay the coroners fee and death registration, and Bereavement Authority of Ontario Consumer Protection Fee since there is no HST on these government-imposed fees.

This Funeral Planning Guide will detail further funeral costs and services provided by our funeral home.

Payment: Unless otherwise stated, the funeral account is due within 15 days from the date of death. Payment may be made by cash, cheque or money order. Beyond the allotted time, interest will be charged at a rate of 2% per month which is equivalent to 24% per annum. Additional information regarding funding, payment and financing options is available on request.

Pre-payment Funding: For your convenience, we offer two funding options when prepaying services and supplies. When funeral is prepaid in full today, those costs are guaranteed at the time of death.

- Insurance: You may purchase an insurance contract where the proceeds of the insurance contract will be used to pay for the services and supplies at the time they are delivered, or the contract is cancelled.
- Trust: You may pay the money directly to Guaranteed Funeral Deposits through us and we will place it in a trust account, where it will grow with interest until the contract is fulfilled or cancelled.
