Arrangement Guide

2020 General Price List

On behalf of Grand View Funeral Home and Burial Park, I would like to offer you and your family our help in planning funeral arrangements. While no decisions need to be made right away there are certain items of information that we will need. Below is a list that I hope will make things easier for you. We encourage you to take a moment to review this guide. Rest assured every detail will be addressed.

Family Conference

- Full name and address of you loved one
- Date of birth
- City/State of birth
- Parent's names (please include mother's maiden name)
- Family names (Husband, Wife, Children, Grandchildren, Brothers, Sisters etc.)
- Social Security number
- If your loved one is a military veteran, please bring discharge papers (DD214)
- Years of education (dates and places of graduation)
- Occupation and employer
- Hobbies, interest, personal items
- Affiliations (Church, clubs, organizations etc.)
- Clothing/Jewelry
- Cemetery information (deed if available)
- 50-75 photographs representing family, friends and special memories
- Preference of day and time for Celebration of Life and Funeral Service
- Number of certified copies of death certificate
- Assistance with floral selections
- Funeral luncheon

Again, thank you for your trust and confidence in us. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to call.

Respectfully,

Brent T. Massie & Nicholas W. Johnston

(PRICES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE)

The goods and services shown within this booklet are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reasons in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Basic Services of Funeral Director & Staff-----$2,600.00

Our charge includes funeral counseling, necessary arrangements, recording vital statistics, securing permits, filing and obtaining death certificates and other forms and claims, preparation of necessary notices, and coordination of service plans with parties involved in the final disposition of the deceased. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains).

Embalming-----$775.00

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as funeral with a viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

(New Year's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving) (No Deliveries on Christmas Day)

In most areas of the country, no state or local laws make consumers buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries ask and/or require that you have such a container so that the grave will not settle in. Either a burial vault or a grave liner will satisfy these requirements.

No other warranties and no warranties of merchandising fitness for a particular use are extended by the seller.
