FAMILY OWNED SINCE 1945

Since 1945 the Matney family has been providing the Kansas City area with caring and compassionate service. The Cemetery dates back to the end of the Civil War, Lewis Matney purchased the cemetery from his sister Anna and her husband T.C. Payne. He purchased more land and made improvements over the years with the help of his family. His eldest son Duane "Bud" Matney worked in the cemetery since a young boy and eventually took over as president several years before his father died in 1986. For several years we were fortunate enough to have all three generations working in the business at the same time, including Bud's sons Mike and Danny Matney. There is a rich history of over 2,000 men and women who fought and died for our country in almost every war America has been involved in. We also have many famous people that were from the Kansas City area and chose to come back. 38,000 people from Kansas City, Shawnee, Overland Park, Merriam, Mission, Prairie Village, Roeland Park, Bonner Springs, Edwardsville and Kansas City Missouri have chosen Maple Hill to be their final resting place. In 1973 Lewis opened the Maple Hill Funeral Home. His son Bill Young was already a Funeral Director and Embalmer and began running the funeral home and serving families. He served over 12,000 families until his decision to retire from the day-to-day business and sell the business to his nephew, Mike Matney, ensuring that the business would stay in family that is committed to the community. Because of our beautiful facilities, affordability and being conveniently located (just North of I-35 on I-635 as well as only 3 miles south of I-70), families understand we are only minutes away from anywhere in the city and provide unmatched service. We encourage our families to be involved to create a personalized one-of-a-kind service. This is proven to help the grieving process. Everyone's life deserves to be celebrated and that is what we consider to be the most important part of what we do, "Celebrate a Life Lived".

What to Consider When Choosing a Funeral Home

Choosing a funeral home is an important decision—one that deserves thoughtful consideration. Here are key questions and points to help guide you through the process:

Are you comparing apples to apples?

Some funeral homes advertise low prices, but the fine print may require you to follow specific conditions to receive those rates. If you choose a different path, the advertised price often no longer applies. Make sure you're comparing full, transparent pricing—not just teaser rates.

Is the director paid on commission?

Our directors are not incentivized to upsell. They're paid a fair wage, so you'll never be pressured into purchasing anything you don't want or need.

Are arrangements made at your pace?

You should never feel rushed. Compassionate, patient service ensures you fully understand every step.

Is the funeral home locally owned and operated?

Maple Hill is owned by a local family and employs members of the local community. We believe in supporting the people who live here.

Does the funeral home give back?

We proudly support local police, fire departments, schools, veterans' organizations, churches, and more throughout Wyandotte and Johnson counties.

Is the funeral home truly local—or part of a national corporation?

Some homes use a family name but are actually owned by out-of-state corporations. Their profits often go to shareholders, not back into your community.

Can you speak directly with a decision-maker?

At Maple Hill, you can always talk with someone who has the authority to approve special requests or unique arrangements.

Are the facilities modern, clean, and welcoming?

Your comfort matters. The environment should feel warm, respectful, and accommodating to your needs.

Do you feel the services reflect real value?

Services and merchandise should be offered at fair, honest prices—without hidden costs or pressure tactics.

Are you encouraged to celebrate your loved one's life?

Celebration and remembrance should go hand-in-hand. We believe in honoring lives with meaning and dignity.

Will your experience feel personal—or passed around?

A dedicated, consistent point of contact ensures your experience is seamless and personal, not fragmented.

Are you prepared ahead of time?

If you haven't preplanned and call a funeral home out of convenience, you may still owe for removal fees or other services if you later change your mind. Being informed helps you avoid unwanted surprises.

Final Thoughts

An informed decision is the best decision. Make time to educate yourself, ask questions, and request planning resources. Every funeral home should offer a simple booklet to help document your wishes. At Maple Hill, our website is the most comprehensive in the city. We're proud to display our prices online as a sign of transparency. No gimmicks. No lures. Just honest, fair service for your family—now and for generations to come.

Privacy Policy:

We are committed to protecting the privacy of the families we serve. While complete confidentiality cannot be guaranteed, we only share information with individuals or organizations directly involved in the funeral arrangements—such as physicians, insurance providers, Social Security, vital records offices, cemeteries, or clergy. We will only release information to banks or credit card companies after they verify key identifying details. For genealogy requests, limited information may be shared if the requester correctly answers security questions through our online form. We do not provide the name, address, or phone number of the person responsible for arrangements. Instead, we forward the requester's information to that individual. In accordance with Kansas Statute K.S.A. 65-1734, we will only take direction from the legal next of kin when making decisions regarding the disposition of a body. We reserve the right to withhold information at our professional discretion.

Payment Policy:

At this difficult time, we understand there are many decisions to make. To help prevent any confusion or unexpected financial concerns, we ask that all families take a few moments to review and understand our payment policy. Payment Is Required Before Services Are Provided. All funeral services must be paid in full or verified with express funeral funding prior to the obituary being submitted and/or 24 hours before the day of the service. Cash Advance items: We are happy to assist with coordinating services and forwarding payment to the appropriate parties that require advance payment. These may include:

- ☐ Cemetery or crematory fees
- ☐ Certified death certificates
- ☐ Sales tax on merchandise
- ☐ Police escorts
- ☐ Musicians, clergy, obituary placements, or other requested services

Accepted forms of Payment:

- ☐ Cash, Check, or Credit Card (Visa, Mastercard, Discover)

- ☐ Prepaid funeral plans with Maple Hill Funeral Home
- ☐ Insurance Assignment via Express Funeral Funding
 - ☐ A 3.75% processing fee applies to the funeral home's portion of the assignment.
 - ☐ A minimum fee of $100 to assignments less than $3750
- ☐ Please note: We do not file claims on estates.

Viewing of a Decedent Policy:

Our funeral home offers two options for viewing a loved one prior to cremation or burial. Families may choose a Private Viewing, which includes a brief, non-ceremonial opportunity for the legal next of kin and their immediate descendants (such as a spouse or children) to view the deceased. This time is scheduled prior to cremation, does not include any ceremonial elements, and is limited in attendance. The fee for this service is $100. For those desiring a more traditional experience, we also offer embalming with public viewing, allowing for a full visitation or funeral service prior to cremation or burial. All viewings are subject to availability and are carried out with the utmost dignity and respect at the discretion of funeral home staff.
