GENERAL PRICE LIST

These prices are effective as of March 1, 2023 and are subject to change without notice.

Prior to drafting a contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items that you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND STAFF:

$1695

This is a basic fee that we charge every family for our professional expertise in assisting them with their preferences. It includes a proportionate share of the taxes, licenses, utilities and business expenses required to serve the public. Coordination of arrangements with clergy, musicians, florists, motor escorts, cemetery or crematory, fraternal organizations, common carriers and other funeral service providers. Assistance with applying for benefits from all county, state or federal agencies. Personnel available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to respond to initial call. This charge also includes, but is not limited to, consultation with family, administrative and clerical services, preparation of the death certificate for certification by the attending physician or coroner and filing the death certificate with the appropriate government agencies. There will be a charge for each service requested or required. This fee for our services will be added to the total cost of the arrangements you select. This fee is included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials and forwarding or receiving remains.

PREPARATION OF THE BODY:

Embalming – complete preparation, including sanitary care and necessary supplies for procedure. (Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with a viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.)
