Gathering

THE IMPORTANCE OF GATHERING

In our experience, the gathering of family, friends and community is one of the single most important elements to helping us feel better when we experience loss. Although we each have different cultural, religious and social backgrounds, the gathering is equally important to us all.

It is important to understand that not all services, or "gatherings," have to be the same. Some may choose to have this in their church or our funeral home chapel, while others may prefer a park, public venue or their own backyard. Regardless of the location, Posey Funeral Directors will plan and carry out the service or gathering of your choice at a location that is most meaningful to you.

Continued Care

YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

Our service to you does not conclude when the funeral or memorial event is over. We are here to provide long-term support for the families we serve.

PROBATE ISSUES

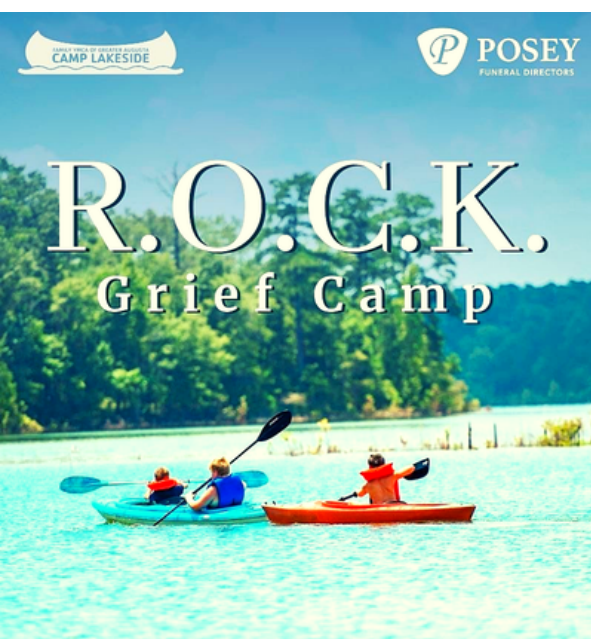

While we are not attorneys, we do deal with end-of-life issues everyday. We will provide you with a list of items needed for probate and assist in any way needed to help begin the process.

GRIEF SUPPORT

The act of remembering can be a step towards healing a heart broken by grief, if managed in a healthy manner.

At Posey Funeral Directors, we offer many resources and opportunities for you to be supported in your journey back to joy. Each week, we hold small, intimate grief support groups in our Posey Cottage. Each year, families who have experienced the death of a loved one during that year gather together in our Posey Chapel for a Service of Remembrance to honor the lives now deeply missed. Additionally, we have partnered with the Children's Hospital of Georgia and The Greater Augusta Family YMCA to develop an annual summer camp experience for children who have experienced the death of a parent or primary caregiver. Our website provides numerous opportunities for individual support, including Interactive Aftercare and children's resources, right from the comfort of your own home.

Wherever you are in your grief journey, you are not alone. Posey Funeral Directors is here to provide caring service every step of the way.
