General Price List

These prices are effective as of June 12, 2025, and subject to change without notice.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected. This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you.

Cash advance items will be shown on the statement describing the general goods and services you selected.

Payment Methods

Payment in full is required prior to the date of services or final disposition.

However, we realize that funeral expenses may create a financial burden for some families.

To assist in easing this burden, we accept all major credit cards.

Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party of the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

Administrative and professional services of funeral director and staff 1795

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. It includes a proportionate share of the taxes, licenses, utilities and business expenses required to serve the public. Our charge includes, 24-hour availability; arrangement consultation; administrative services; preparation of the death certificate for certification; necessary permits; filing the death certificate; consultation with clergy, cemetery, crematory, honor guard, or common carrier; planning, direction, and supervision of the services and disposition as determined by the family. This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains. Sales tax, certified copies of death certificates, and disposition permits are not included in any price.

Embalming (Includes dressing, casketing, and cosmetics) 800

Embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement which does not require you to pay for it, such as a direct cremation or immediate burial, or closed casket with no viewing.

California Code of Regulations, Section 1223 (c): Every licensed funeral establishment and funeral director who holds unembalmed human remains for a period longer than twenty-four (24) hours shall cause the body to be refrigerated at an approved facility with sufficient capacity as defined under section 1223.1(d).
